WALTER E. FAUNTROY
TO SPEAK AT UD

DAYTON, Ohio, January 26, 1983 -- The University of Dayton Office of Minority Student Services is sponsoring a lecture, to be given Thursday, February 3, by Walter E. Fauntroy. The lecture, on the economy and its effect on minority employment, will be given in Boll Theatre at 8 p.m.

Fauntroy, elected delegate to the House of Representatives in 1971, is the first person to represent the District of Columbia in 100 years. He is a member of the Congressional Black Caucus and was appointed director of the Washington Bureau of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference by Martin Luther King, Jr.

In the 96th Congress he is a member of the House Banking, Finance, and Urban Affairs Committee and a member of the House District Committee where he serves as chairman of the Subcommittee on Government Affairs and Budget.
